LTCC Student Excellence Award Winner

VICTOR REYNOSA

On March 14th, the first Student Excellence Award was given to Victor Reynosa. Victor was nominated by Julie Booth, Dr. Cathy Cox and Sean Ryland writing that “Victor is not only extremely intelligent but is also an amazing human being with a wonderful sense of humor. His ability to effectively and clearly advocate for students on campus consistently exceeds our expectations not only for the quality of his leadership service, but also for his maturity, acceptance of responsibility, and his follow-through with difficult assignments. We cannot over emphasize what a great student he is. Victor is always engaged and working to apply the material to the world around him, and his excitement when it comes to learning is contagious. He is truly a student that makes instructors and other students better by virtue of his enthusiasm and passion, and LTCC as an institution is lucky to have him. Victor is co-president of the science club, and he is super motivated and really good at inspiring the other students. In my classes, he was very interested in the material and enthusiastic, and disciplined. And he is a Led Zeppelin fan, so we think he’s super cool.” #WelcometoCoyoteCountry
