TATSURO AMANO

Student Spotlight

Hello my name is Tatsuuro Amano, and I am an international student from the city of Nagoya, in Japan. I chose to study at LTCC because the area is beautiful and quiet. I have enjoyed meeting new friends, hanging out, and learning more about American culture. I have been looking forward to a fun Winter as my city in Japan doesn't typically have much snow. My favorite experience so far has been the History of Rock class and enjoyed meeting Professor Mark Williams. I LOVE teaching people about the Japanese culture and sharing this language with everyone. I hope you register for the Japanese class, as I would be happy to tutor and teach you about this beautiful language!
