Page 3, Q1. In what area(s) listed under the Scope of College Council has the Council been most effective in executing its charge during this most recent academic year? Why?

1	Items A, B, and C seemed to be the areas where the Council has been most effective. This is mostly due to the outstanding efforts of people outside of College Council in developing and implementing these areas.	Jun 27, 2011 2:33 PM
2	Creating a College Planning Council Subcommittee of College Council. I believe this is a much more efficient way to organize the responsibilities of the larger College Council.	Jun 23, 2011 4:00 PM
3	Budget: The Council did not try to micro-manage the budget process this year.	Jun 23, 2011 8:45 AM
4	In all aspects of planning mostly because of Aaron and program review, except the foundation	Jun 22, 2011 4:13 PM
5	College Council's participation in the annual strategic planning session was informative and effective.	Jun 22, 2011 12:08 PM

Page 3, Q2. In what area(s) listed under the Scope of College Council does the College Council need to improve in the execution of its charge? Why?

1	Item D is one area that needs to be addressed in a more proactive way with discussions focused on the possible restructuring of the Council's duties and members. The planning and budget areas should become more prominent discussion points as the College continues to develop these tools to effectively manage these limited resources.	Jun 27, 2011 2:33 PM
2	The College Council would benefit from having more diverse voices contribute to the dialogue. Currently, only one or two individuals seem to contribute to the discussion. My suggestion would to create a structure that solicits input from each committee member, and do so in a way that requires said solicitation prior to one person speaking multiple times.	Jun 23, 2011 4:00 PM
3	More in-depth analysis and conversation about portions of the budget.	Jun 23, 2011 8:45 AM
4	Virtually all other aspects besides planning and program review.	Jun 22, 2011 4:13 PM
5	The leadership transitions of the past year have impacted the ability of College Council to execute its charge. Effectiveness could be improved by sharing information in a transparent manner; providing supporting documentation in advance of schedule meetings; fostering an environment which encourages questioning and dialogue; and strengthening the commitment to honor the participatory governance process.	Jun 22, 2011 12:08 PM

Page 3, Q3. What additional area(s) of College operations, if any should be added to the Council's Scope? Why?

1	I'm sure there may be some out there but I think it's important that we first get these existing areas figured out before we start adding new ones.	Jun 27, 2011 2:33 PM
2	None. The College Council's scope is expansive. In fact, the purview of College Council is almost unprecedented compared to other Ca. CC governance bodies.	Jun 23, 2011 4:00 PM
3	N/A	Jun 23, 2011 8:45 AM
4	none, certainly not personnel specifically.	Jun 22, 2011 4:13 PM
5	Similar to facility planning, College Council should have a role in the high-level technology planning aspects of the institution since there are significant impacts related to budget, staffing, and infrastructure.	Jun 22, 2011 12:08 PM

Page 3, Q4. What aspect(s) of College operations, if any should be removed from the Council's Scope? Why?

1	Again, we need to get better at what we are doing now so that we can see if some aspects of the current structure of the Council need to be broken off into its own body.	Jun 27, 2011 2:33 PM
2	None. Just clarified where they begin and end. See number 6 below.	Jun 23, 2011 4:00 PM
3	N/A	Jun 23, 2011 8:45 AM
4	We are ok	Jun 22, 2011 4:13 PM
5	None. The scope is narrow enough.	Jun 22, 2011 12:08 PM

Page 3, Q5. What changes, if any, would you like to see made to the operations of College Council? Please explain.

1	We should focus on how we can make the Council more effective which may mean a restructuring of its duties and members. This may include the creation of another governing body to work side-by-side with the Council.	Jun 27, 2011 2:33 PM
2	I question that students should have the ability to vote. This too is unprecendented and I am not sure beneficial. Too often the students on the council voted without being fully informed or were swayed by other members on the council. Ethically, this is a very bad position for a student to be placed in.	Jun 23, 2011 4:00 PM
4	Issues, particularly on the part of the adman, should be more open and forthcoming.	Jun 22, 2011 4:13 PM
5	The role of the College Council chair should be viewed as more than a meeting facilitator. This individual should be trained, compensated, and charged with the effective delivery of our primary participatory governance process. Duties of this role should be more clearly defined and could perhaps include tasks such as ensuring that the agenda contains all items of importance, requesting supporting documentation for the agenda as needed, coordinating presentations of key information, mentoring student representatives, communicating the activities of College Council to the campus (perhaps through LTCC Times?), etc. By defining the role, there would be greater consistency in how College Council operates from one year to the next.	Jun 22, 2011 12:08 PM

Page 3, Q6. Is there any other constructive and useful information that you would like to include?

1	The restructuring of the Council into two separate bodies - "Instructional Council" (for academic, student support, and assessment policies) with and "Instructional Support Council" (for budget, facility, and technology resource management). Both would be recommending bodies to the President and the Board.	Jun 27, 2011 2:33 PM
2	I would strongly suggest that the College Council conduct a training for all members where we clearly dilineate where the purview of the council begins and ends.	Jun 23, 2011 4:00 PM
3	Every member of College Council should have contributions. The meetings are frequently dominated by one to two people. It does not feel like "shared governance" if only a few voice their opinions or ideas.	Jun 23, 2011 8:45 AM
4	Peopple who are not tenured faculty should be more comfortable speaking out instead of fearing for their jobs if they do speak out.	Jun 22, 2011 4:13 PM
5	College Council has the potential to be a valuable forum for collaboration and feedback, but this role is dependent on whether meaningful items are brought to the table for discussion.	Jun 22, 2011 12:08 PM
