LTCC SPOTLIGHT

Hello, I'm Shauna Brunea (pronouns - she, her, hers) and am new to the LTCC community, I have been working here for about two months now as the Student Life Coordinator. This experience has been incredibly rewarding, the community here is amazing. I have seven amazing Student Ambassadors who have been so helpful through my transition into this position. I'm excited to be able to host events and activities on campus for students to attend. When students have the ability to build a community, they persist and are more likely to have both a better experience and to graduate! As campus is closed, I will be creating virtual events - everything from yoga to trivia. On a more personal note, I grew up in Buffalo, NY and moved out to Yosemite National Park almost 5 years ago and have since explored the West Coast. I've spent much of my time climbing, trail running, baking, reading and traveling! I'm happy to finally be settled into my new home and am so stoked to be a part of the LTCC community!
