

Name:

What is a problem you see in your community or workplace/internship?

How can you reframe the way you look at the problem? Is there information you could research? Other points of view you should consider?

How does the media present this problem?	Do you feel this is accurate?

What questions are important to ask in solving this problem?	How can you find answers to these questions?

What are possible solutions to this problem? How could you test them out?